Come to the 200th anniversary of Josiah Wood's Tavern Stand (Church of Our Saviour Vicarage)

Food, Drink, Painting, Song and Story Telling

A Celebration of the 200th anniversary of the Vicarage of Church of Our Saviour, Mission Farm

In 1817 Josiah Wood, Jr., built the second home on the property now known as Mission Farm. This farmhouse, Killington's oldest public building, served as an inn and tavern on the Woodstock-Rutland stagecoach route. To celebrate its 200th anniversary, we are reopening Josiah Wood's tavern stand and you are invited to join us!

When: July 23, 2017

Where: 316 Mission Farm Road, Killington

Time: 3:00-6:00 PM

What: Join local plein air artist Peter Huntoon, singer Melissa Maravell and local story tellers. Enjoy Long Trail Ale and tavern food as would have been served in 1817, provided by Mission Farm Bakery.

The event is free and open to the public.
All are welcome!
