

Sacred Waters:

Two Panel Discussions

November 9th & November 15th
6:30pm-8:00pm
Trinity Church, Shelburne VT

November 9th will focus on our local watershed and Lake Champlain, and what citizens can do to help protect and preserve this critical resource.

Participants:

Craig Heindel, Senior Hydrologist, Waite-Heindel Environmental Management
Krista Hoffis, Program Coordinator, Lewis Creek Association
Rose Paul, Director Science and Freshwater Programs Nature Conservancy
Haley Pero, Environmental Outreach Senator Sanders' Office
Don Rendall, Vice Chair Shelburne Natural Resources and Conservation Committee

November 15th will focus on the spiritual aspects of water informed by leaders in the Christian, Islamic, Jewish, Hindu, Buddhist, and Abenaki traditions.

Participants:

Taysir Al-khatib, President Islamic Society of Vermont
Rabbi James Glazier, Temple Sinai
Roshi Sunyana Graef, Abbot of the Vermont Zen Center
Ashish Halwat, Hindu
Reverend Dr. Frederick Moser, Trinity Episcopal Church Shelburne
Don Stevens, Chief, Nulhegan Band of the Coosuk-Abenaki Nation

There is no charge for either event. Light food will be available.

Please RSVP at our website trinityshelburne.org by clicking on the links in our News and Events section.