

CONSTITUTION AND

As Amended
(Including by the October 2018 Convention)

{Note: The following preamble is an historical document stating the position of the Church in 1838 in adopting the initial Constitution and Canons and, in the opinion of the Canons Committee, may not be amended.}

PREAMBLE
To the Constitution and Canons

WHEREAS, it is desirable that those important Constitutional principles which distinguish the Protestant Episcopal Church should be fully exhibited and thoroughly understood amongst her people, and that her whole system of law and government should be presented in a brief and simple form, within the reach of all, so as to leave the least possible ground for ignorance and error;

THEREFORE, the following Constitution and Canons declaratory of the said principles, and for a guide in the administration thereof, have been set forth by the Clergy and Laity duly assembled in Convention, first in St. Paul's Church, Windsor, May 25th, A.D. 1838, and amended at subsequent Conventions, viz:

THE CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I: Of the Bible, the Book of Common Prayer, etc.

This Church acknowledges and receives the revealed Word of God, contained in the canonical books of the Old and New Testaments as the only infallible rule of faith and practice, to which the Church's doctrines, worship, and government are all referred. And next after the Holy Scriptures, this Church adopts the standard established in the Book of Common Prayer, and the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church in the United States of America as set forth by the General Convention.

ARTICLE II: Of the Church.

The persons constituting the Church are the Laity, consisting of all who are admitted to the Covenant of Grace, by Christian baptism; and the Clergy, who besides this, are further set apart to the sacred office of the ministry by the Apostolic Rite of Ordination. Without the Concurrence of both the Clergy and the Laity, no rule or law of the Church can be adopted, changed or done away.

ARTICLE III: Of the Ministry.

There are three Orders of the Clergy established by Apostolic authority: Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. Of these all baptize, all officiate in divine service, and all preach the Gospel, but none except a Bishop or a Priest can consecrate the Eucharist or take the pastoral charge of a congregation. In their relative order, the Deacon is subordinate to the Priest, and the Priest to the Bishop. And the Bishop, being successor to the Apostolic order, has sole official right to ordain, to confirm, to pronounce and to govern the same according to the Scriptures and the Canons. The Priests or Presbyters, nevertheless, are bound to counsel and advise the Bishop, who shall not ordinarily act in any important matter without consulting with a certain number of Clergy and Laity, elected by the rest, and called the Standing Committee, or Council of Advice; neither does the Bishop exercise any legislative power except in concurrence with the Clergy and the Laity, duly assembled in Convention.

ARTICLE IV: Of the Laity.

The Laity are divided, according to local convenience, into Parishes or Missions, and commit the general management of their parochial business to a portion of their own number, elected annually out of the Parish, called Wardens and Vestry. To these belong the administration of all the secular concerns of their particular society; but they have no part in the spiritual government which belongs to the office of the ministry alone.

ARTICLE V: Of the Convention.

The whole Church throughout the Diocese meets in Convention once in every year, the Bishop presiding, the Clergy attending in their Order, and the Laity represented by Delegates elected by each Parish and by each organized Mission in such manner as the Canons shall direct.

Special Conventions are also held, when required by the Bishop, or, if the Diocese be vacant, by the Standing Committee. (At Special Conventions held when the Diocese is without a Bishop there shall not be any action amending the Constitution or Canons, or admitting new Parishes or Missions; any pending legislation affecting any or all of these matters must be held pending until a new Bishop has been elected and installed.)

ARTICLE VI: Of the Organization of Congregations.

1. A Congregation or group of Confirmed persons, Communicants in good standing, and not under any ecclesiastical censure or suspension may apply in writing to the Bishop requesting that they may be admitted into the Diocese as a Parish or as an organized Mission. Their application must set forth that the signers are entitled to the privileges of a distinct religious society by the laws of the State of Vermont and that they adopt, receive, and promise entire conformity to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Vermont.

On receipt of such an application the Bishop, having made proper investigation of the matter, shall recommend to the Standing Committee such action as the Bishop believes desirable. If the decision is favorable, the Standing Committee shall authorize the election by the Parish designate or the Mission designate of Delegates to the next Diocesan Convention, at which time the Standing Committee shall ask for a ratification of its actions by the Convention and the seating of the Delegates so chosen.

2. An organized Mission may be elevated to the status of a Parish whenever the Bishop advises the Standing Committee that such action is prudent and desirable, and the Standing Committee approves the step and advises the annual Convention which thereupon ratifies the action.

ARTICLE VII: Of the Provisions to Be Made for the General Fund.

The duty of providing for the support and maintenance of the Ministry is plainly declared in the Old and New Testaments; but in order that the whole Church in the Diocese may know and provide for the temporal condition of each part, the following rules are to be observed: Reports of the condition of every Parish and Mission shall be made annually, by the Rectors (or Ministers) and Wardens and Vestries thereof, such reports to be made to the Bishop on or before the date set by the Bishop and not less than six weeks prior to the date set for holding the annual Convention. Failure to make the required annual report on or before the designated date shall be regarded as a serious offense subjecting the offending Parish or Mission to censure and such penalties as the Canons prescribe. All reports shall include details of the income of the Parish or Mission, its debts, the amount of the salary paid the Clergy, together with such other particulars as may be defined by Canon or required by vote of the Diocesan Council.

ARTICLE VIII: Of the Administration of Ecclesiastical Justice.

All Priests and Deacons of this Church shall be liable to presentment and trial, according to the principles of Ecclesiastical Law, for crime or immorality; for holding or teaching publicly or privately, and advisedly, any doctrine contrary to that held by the Episcopal Church of the United States of America; for violation of the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese; or for any act which is a breach of their ordination vows; and it shall be the duty of the Diocesan Convention to prescribe, by a proper Canon, the method of such presentment and trial.

ARTICLE IX: Of the Bishop's Authority for Removal of Diocesan Officers.

The Bishop has constitutional authority as well as the moral obligation to demand the immediate and instant resignation of any Diocesan Officer or member of a Diocesan Committee, for cause. In the event such resignation is not immediately forthcoming, the Bishop may, with the consent of the Standing Committee, remove such Officer or member. Any vacancy in a Diocesan Office, no matter how caused, shall be filled by appointment by the Bishop of some suitable and properly qualified person to hold the office until the next Diocesan Convention, unless there shall be some other canonical provision for filling the office.

ARTICLE X: Of the Mode of Altering the Constitution.

The mode of altering or adding to this Constitution shall be as follows, viz: A proposition for amendment shall be laid before the Convention in writing, and, if approved shall lie over to the next annual Convention. If then approved by two-thirds of the Clergy and by two thirds of the Laity present, voting by Orders, the proposed amendment shall become a part of the Constitution.

THE CANONS

TITLE I OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE

CANON I: THE CONVENTION

1. The annual meeting of the Convention shall be held at such time and place as the Bishop shall appoint, unless some other time and place have been determined by the previous Convention.
2. When the Bishop or, if there be no Bishop, the Standing Committee shall deem it expedient to call a Special Convention, four-weeks notice shall be given to all Clergy and to one of the Wardens of each Parish and permanently organized Mission in the Diocese. The notice shall state the particular business for which the Convention is summoned, and no other business shall be proposed or determined upon in said Convention.
3. All Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese and who have attended at least two out of five immediately preceding conventions, if such conventions have occurred during their tenure of canonical residence, shall have a seat and vote in the convention. The requirement of attendance at previous conventions shall not apply to Clergy who are serving in the armed forces of the United States or to Clergy who are absent from the United States due to service as missionaries in foreign countries. Clergy who are newly canonically resident in the Diocese are eligible to vote. The Secretary of Convention shall prepare, under the direction of the Ecclesiastical Authority, at least one week before the meeting of the Convention, a list of all Clergy canonically resident, in the order of their canonical residence, annexing their respective stations, or, if not engaged, their places of residence; but not including the name of any Clergy who may be suspended from the Ministry. Those who are entitled to voting membership in the Convention shall be distinguished from the others. The voting list thus prepared shall be laid before the Convention immediately after it has been called to order and, when required, the names of the Clerical Members shall be called therefrom.

4. Every Parish regularly organized as required by the Constitution and every Mission permanently organized by these Canons shall be entitled to and shall send three (3) Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention. Lay Delegates shall be communicants in good standing, domiciled in this Diocese and resident in the Parishes or Missions that they represent; provided that no person under ecclesiastical censure or process shall be allowed a seat in the Convention. (wherever in these Canons the phrase, "domiciled in the Diocese" or "domiciled in the Parish" is used, it shall be understood to mean communicants enrolled upon the canonical register of a Parish or Mission in this Diocese, and in which Parish or Mission they habitually worship, even though the residence of such communicant or communicants may be outside the legal bounds of such Parish or Mission.)
5. All deputies to the General Convention and all members of Boards and Committees elected by the Convention shall be entitled ex officio to seats in the Convention, and, with the approval of the Chair, have the right to speak on subjects pertaining to their respective offices.
6. The Secretary of the Convention shall prepare a list of the Lay Delegates and their substitutes from the certificates sent by the clerks of the Parishes and Missions. This list shall be submitted to a Committee on Credentials appointed by the Chair who shall pass upon all credentials presented and refer to Convention, for action, all issues arriving from contested seats or the seating of delegates without proper credentials. When required, the roll of the Lay Delegates shall be called by the Secretary from the list as reported by this Committee.
7. The Bishop shall preside at Convention and shall be free to express opinions from the Chair. In the absence of the Bishop, or the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, or the Bishop Suffragan, if there be one, or if the office be vacant, the President of the Standing Committee, if present, shall preside, or may request the Standing Committee to designate a Chair of the Convention. If the President of the Standing Committee is absent, the Standing Committee shall designate a Chair of the Convention from its membership.
8. The Bishop shall appoint a Secretary of Convention and appoint an Assistant Secretary of Convention to serve for a term of one year. These appointments shall be made at the annual Convention subject to confirmation by the Convention. The term of office of the Secretary and Assistant Secretary shall commence upon their appointment, and they shall continue to hold office until their successors are chosen and assume the responsibilities of their offices. The Secretary and Assistant Secretary of any one Convention shall be responsible for the publishing of the Journal of that Convention.
9. A quorum of the Convention, except as otherwise provided, shall be not less than one third of the Clergy entitled to vote and Delegates from not less than one-third of the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation, provided the Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor (if there be one) be present. But in their absence, such number shall not have power to do more than receive the usual reports and elect the ordinary officers. In the election of a Bishop, a majority of the Clergy entitled to vote in that Convention shall be present, and two-thirds of all Parishes and Missions entitled to send Delegates shall be represented, before the Convention can proceed. A Parish or Mission shall be entitled to send Delegates to a Special Convention when a Bishop is to be elected if it was represented by Delegates in at least two out of five immediately preceding conventions.
10. The Convention in its ordinary mode of transacting business shall deliberate and vote without any distinction of Orders; but any member may call for a division upon any question, and if this call be sustained by two other members, then the question in debate shall be put first to the Clergy and next to the Laity. A majority of delegates present and voting shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the Convention unless the Canons require a different vote, except that a majority of both Orders shall be necessary when the Convention is voting by Orders.

11. When a Bishop is to be elected, the Convention shall always vote by Orders, and a majority of each Order, when both concur, shall constitute an election. The Secretary shall call the roll of the Clergy, who shall as their names are called, deposit their ballots with the Tellers. The Secretary shall arrange for separate balloting by the Clergy and Laity. Each Order shall cast its ballots separately, and there shall be maintained by each Order a checklist prepared by the Secretary from the rolls of Clerical and Lay Delegates who have qualified. When the ballot boxes are opened, the Clergy shall deposit their ballots with the Tellers designated for the taking of the Clergy ballots, and the Lay Delegates shall deposit their ballots with the Tellers designated for the taking of the Lay ballots. The Tellers shall check off the names of each delegate on the respective checklists, as each ballot is cast. When the votes of both Orders have been counted, the results shall be announced to the Convention. If there has been no election, balloting shall be continued in the same way and order until there is an election. Immediately following the announcement of the result of a ballot where there has been no election, the Convention, by vote, may recess for a specified time.

12. Every Parish or Mission not represented at the annual Convention by a Lay Delegate, unless for reasons satisfactory to the Bishop, shall not be entitled to appropriations from the Diocese or from the Diocesan Council or any other Diocesan body. The Parishes or Missions neglecting to send Lay Delegates for two successive Conventions may, on motion, be stricken from the list until they make suitable acknowledgment.

13. The Services of the Convention shall be such as the Bishop shall appoint, and at one of these, the Bishop's Address or Charge shall be delivered unless the Bishop shall otherwise appoint.

14. It shall be in the power of each Convention to prescribe rules of order for its own government.

CANON 2: THE BISHOP COADJUTOR OR BISHOP SUFFRAGAN

1. Only the Bishop of the Diocese shall call a Special Convention for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor or a Bishop Suffragan.

2. The Bishop Coadjutor or the Bishop Suffragan, if there be one, shall preside in the Convention in the absence of the Diocesan Bishop and when so presiding, shall exercise the privileges of the Bishop. When not presiding, the Bishop Coadjutor or the Bishop Suffragan shall have a vote in the Convention as one of the Clergy.

CANON 3: CONVENTION OFFICES

1. The Secretary of the Convention shall keep full and exact records of all Convention actions, with all papers, documents, memorials, etc., including the results of all balloting. The same shall be filed away that they can easily be consulted at any time. The Secretary shall prepare, after conference with the Bishop, or in the event of the Bishop's absence or death with the President of the Standing Committee, a call for any regular or Special Convention. Such call shall contain, as far as possible, an order of business upon which the Convention is to act. This Call and order of business shall be sent to all Delegates to Convention at least two weeks prior to the opening day of the Convention. Prior to every meeting of the General Convention, the Secretary shall prepare a condensed report of the State of the Church in this Diocese and shall forward the same to the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention, along with other statistics and papers required by the Canons of the General Convention. Under the supervision of the Bishop, the Secretary shall publish the proceedings of each Convention as soon as practicable after the close of Convention and shall send copies of the proceedings to all Clergy of the

All candidates for these offices shall be placed in nomination before the Convention by the Committee. The Convention, however, retains the right to permit nominations from the floor, except in the case of the Council members to be elected by the Mission District Electing Committees under Canon 6A.4.

No member of the Standing Committee shall be eligible for re-election until one year after that member's term has expired.

1. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a regular record of the proceedings of the Committee. The record, together with all papers in the possession of the Committee, shall be open to the inspection of the Bishop or the Convention when required. All records shall be entered in a book belonging to the Diocese.

2. The President of the Standing Committee shall call a meeting of the Committee at any time on the request of any two members in writing.

AGREEMENT FOR JOINT ADMINISTRATION OF TITLE IV

This is an agreement dated as of October 1, 2010 among the Dioceses of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont (jointly, the “Dioceses”, and individually, “Maine,” “New Hampshire” and “Vermont”), for the joint administration and staffing of matters of clergy discipline under Title IV of the Canons of the General Convention of The Episcopal Church (“Title IV”) arising in the Dioceses.

1. The Disciplinary Board.

- a. There will be one Disciplinary Board for the Dioceses, consisting of eleven persons, six of whom will be Priests or Deacons of The Episcopal Church and five of whom will be lay persons, selected as provided below. The Disciplinary Board will constitute the only Court instituted by each of the Dioceses within the meaning of Article IX of the Constitution of The Episcopal Church.
- b. Each of the Dioceses will select as members of the Disciplinary Board each year two persons who are either Priests or Deacons and one lay member. In addition, on a rotating basis two of the Dioceses will select a fourth member of the Disciplinary Board, who shall be a lay person. The Diocese that will select only three members will change every three years; for the three years commencing January 1, 2012, Maine will select three members; for the three years commencing January 1, 2015, New Hampshire will select three members; and for the three years commencing January 1, 2018, Vermont will select three members. Thereafter the rotation will continue in like manner for the duration of this agreement.
- c. Selection of members of the Disciplinary Board will be in a manner provided by the Canons of the Diocese selecting the member, provided that all members of the Disciplinary Board shall meet the requirements of Title IV.
- d. Any vacancy in the membership of the Disciplinary Board will be promptly filled by the Diocese selecting the prior member whose resignation or declination to serve, death, disability rendering the member unable to act, or loss of qualification for membership created the vacancy.
- e. On or before December 1 of each year, the Bishop of each of the Dioceses or the Bishop’s designee will notify the then President of the Disciplinary Board of those persons selected from that Diocese to serve for the ensuing year as members of the Disciplinary Board. The President will call a meeting of the Disciplinary Board to be held in January of the following year, which may be held by conference call or other electronic means affording simultaneous audio communication, at which the Disciplinary Board will elect a President to serve for the year and until a successor President is elected.
- f. For the period July 1, 2011 to December 31, 2011, Maine will be the Diocese to select only three members, Vermont and New Hampshire will select four members and all persons selected as members will serve terms expiring on December 31, 2011. Thereafter, and notwithstanding that a Diocese may select Board members for longer terms, for the purposes of this agreement the term of each person selected as a member will be for a calendar year, but there will be no limit to the number of successive terms that a member may serve. If a member’s term expires after that person has been appointed to a Conference Panel or a Hearing Panel for a specific matter, but before the matter is finally disposed of, and the member is not selected to continue as a member from that Diocese, the member shall nonetheless continue as a member of the Disciplinary Board for the sole purpose of continuing to serve on the Panel for that matter until final disposition thereof.

2. Other Title IV offices.

- a. Each of the Dioceses will make such provision for Church Attorneys, Intake Officers, Advisors, Investigators, Conciliators and other persons acting under Title IV as it may choose, and will notify the other Dioceses and the President of the Disciplinary Board of the names and contact information of the persons designated for those offices.
- b. Each of the Dioceses will also notify the other Dioceses and the President of the Disciplinary Board of the names and terms of engagement of such of its Advisors, Investigators, or Conciliators as may be available to the other Dioceses for those services.

3. Conduct of Cases

- a. The Diocese within which the Respondent is canonically resident shall be responsible for designating a Church Attorney to be assigned to the matter, and shall provide all other Title IV personnel required, although such personnel may be from one of the other Dioceses.
- b. In selecting a Conference Panel and a Hearing Panel for any case, the President will first decide whether the Conference Panel will be one or more than one person. If the Conference Panel is to be only one person, the President will select that person by drawing by lot a name from among all the names of the Disciplinary Board members who are not disqualified. The President will select the Hearing Panel, and the Conference Panel if it is to be more than one person, by dividing the names of the Disciplinary Board members who are not disqualified into two pools, clergy and lay, and drawing one member of each Panel by lot from each of the two pools. Thereafter, the names remaining in the two pools will be mixed together in a single pool from which the President will draw by lot names to complete the two Panels.
- c. Wherever appropriate and consistent with the values expressed in Canon IV.1, the Disciplinary Board and each of its Panels may conduct proceedings using technology that facilitates distance meetings in order to conserve resources.
- d. For each proceeding, the Reference Panel will consist of the Intake Officer for the Diocese of canonical residence of the subject member of the clergy (and if there be more than one Intake Officer in that Diocese, then the Intake Officer assigned by the Bishop to the proceeding), the President of the Disciplinary Board, and the Bishop of that Diocese.
- e. In addition to the provisions of Canon IV.19.14 of Title IV, the integrity of the Disciplinary Board shall be maintained by permitting the Church Attorney or a Respondent to challenge a member of the Disciplinary Board or Panel appointed for a proceeding on grounds of conflict of interest or undue bias. The Disciplinary Board shall determine whether a challenge is relevant and well-founded in accordance with Canon IV.19.15 of Title IV.

4. Fees and Expenses

- a. Expenses of the Disciplinary Board in carrying out its duties in a proceeding will be the responsibility of the diocese of canonical residence of the subject member of the clergy. Expenses of the Disciplinary Board not incident to a particular proceeding will be borne equally by the Dioceses.
- b. Unless expressly provided otherwise in the canons of the diocese of canonical residency of the subject member of the clergy or in this agreement, all costs, expenses and fees incurred under Title IV or otherwise in the administration of matters of clergy discipline shall be the obligation of the person incurring them.

5. Applicability of Title IV.
