A few notes about tonight's service.

Please leave your microphone on mute during the responsory portions of the service. You are welcome to unmute yourself when you are invited to offer your prayers, then remember to mute it again when you have completed your prayer.

An Order for Compline

The Officiant begins

May God Almighty grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end.
Amen.

Officiant Our help is in the Name of the Holy One;

People The maker of heaven and earth.

The Officiant may then say
Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence is kept.

Officiant and People

Almighty God,
We have sinned against you,
through our own fault,
in thought, and word, and deed,
and in what we have left undone.
For the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, forgive us all our offenses;
and grant that we may serve you in newness of life,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant

May the Almighty God grant us forgiveness of all our sins, and the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Officiant then says

O God, make speed to save us.

People O God, make haste to help us.

All Glory to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

In unison or responsively by whole or half verse

Psalm 91 Qui habitat

1 They who dwell in the shelter of the Most High * abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 They shall say to God, "You are my refuge and my stronghold, * my God in whom I put my trust."

3 For God shall deliver you from the snare of the hunter * and from the deadly pestilence.

4 God's pinions shall cover you,
and under God's wings you shall find refuge; *
God's faithfulness shall be a shield and buckler.

5 You shall not be afraid of any terror by night, *
nor of the arrow that flies by day;

6 Of the plague that stalks in the darkness, *
nor of the sickness that lays waste at mid-day.

7 A thousand shall fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, * but it shall not come near you.

8 Your eyes have only to behold *
to see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because you have made God your refuge *
and the Most High your habitation,

10 There shall no evil happen to you, *
neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.

11 For God shall give the angels charge over you, *
to keep you in all your ways.

12 They shall bear you in their hands, *
lest you dash your foot against a stone.

13 You shall tread upon the lion and adder; *
you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.

14 Because you are bound to me in love,
therefore will I deliver you; *
I will protect you, because you know my Name.

15 You shall call upon me, and I will answer you; *
I am with you in trouble; I will rescue you and bring you honor.

16 With long life will I satisfy you * and show you my salvation.

At the end of the Psalm is said

Glory to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Scripture is read

Officiant

May the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever.

Hebrews 13:20-21

People Thanks be to God.

V. Into your hands, O God, I commend my spirit;

R. For you have redeemed me, O God of truth.

V. Keep us, O God, as the apple of your eye;

R. Hide us under the shadow of your wings.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Together

Our loving God in heaven,

holy is your Name,

may your reign come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

Officiant God, hear our prayer;
People And let our cry come to you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Be present, O merciful God, and protect us through the hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this life may rest in your eternal changelessness; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Keep watch, dear God, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, O Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen.

Prayer for presiding bishop election

Almighty God, source of all wisdom and understanding: Look graciously on your church, and so guide the hearts and minds of those who will choose our next presiding bishop, that we may receive a faithful pastor who will care for all of your people, equip us for our ministries, and proclaim your word to us and to the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Racial Healing

Blessed Jesus, You revealed God through your wise words and loving deeds, and we encounter you still today in the faces of those whom society has pushed to the margins. Guide us, through the love you revealed, to establish the justice you proclaimed, that all people might dwell in harmony and peace, united by that one love that binds us to each other, and to you.

Amen.

*Silence may be kept, and free intercessions and thanksgivings may be offered. Please unmute yourself if you wish to share your prayer aloud. Remember to return your microphone to mute when you have completed your prayer.

The Officiant offers one or more concluding collects

God of peace, be with us through this night which waits for us;
bless us if it brings us sleep;
support us if it brings us pain or anxiety, till we come once more to the morning light of another day.
Amen.

The service concludes with the Song of Simeon with this Antiphon, which is said by all

Guide us waking, O God, and guard us sleeping;
that awake we may watch with Christ,
and asleep we may rest in peace.

O God, you now have set your servant free * to go in peace as you have promised;

For these eyes of mine have seen the Savior, * whom you have prepared for all the world to see:

A Light to enlighten the nations, *
and the glory of your people Israel.

Glory to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

All repeat the Antiphon

Guide us waking, O God, and guard us sleeping; that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

Officiant May the divine help remain with us always.

People And with those who are absent from us.

The Officiant concludes

The almighty and merciful God, Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer, bless us and keep us. Amen.
